First Nations Finance & Administrative Conference

March 25 - 27, 2015 | Coast Coal Harbour Hotel, Vancouver BC

Community Workshop Series

Program Highlights:

- > Band Management & Best Practices
- > Effective Human Resource Planning
- > Establishing an Economic Development Corporation
- > And Much More...

We are pleased to offer the 2015 First Nations Workshop Series Conference. Our intention is to provide high quality, relevant and interactive workshops with useful information that you can apply immediately.

We are offering 3 workshops:

1. Band Management & Best Practices – you will learn best practices in key areas of management responsibility, discuss common challenges and how to overcome them.
2. Effective HR Planning – you will gain an understanding of how HR practices and policies can nurture an organization's culture, protect them from legislative threats and drive their productivity.
3. Establishing an Economic Development Corporation – you will gain a stronger understanding of what it takes to create an economic development corporation.

If you desire to learn in a supportive environment from engaged facilitators and from your peers, then this is a must attend conference.

Who Should Attend?

- > Chief and Council and Band Administrators
- > Employers, Managers or Administrators
- > Federal and Provincial Government Representatives
- > First Nations Development Corporations
