"OCAMP" Workshop

October 16th, 17th and 18th 2013

Part of FNIGC's "OCAP™ IN ACTION" Series

Are you a First Nation person who manages and safe-guards data on behalf of your community (i.e.: a membership clerk, community health-care worker, council member, or researcher in the community)?

If so, then this OCAMP is for you!

OCAMP`s 2-½ day workshop will help you develop:

- a comprehensive understanding of the First Nations principles of OCAP™;
- the tools you need to manage your community`s information and protect their data;
- the knowledge to incorporate OCAP™ in your community;
- tips for negotiating research agreements in your community.

OCAMP

The OCAMP name was coined at the 2011 FNIGC Board of Directors Strategic Planning Session as a way to identify training by FNIGC about the principles of OCAP™ and how they can be utilized by First Nations people in First Nations communities.
